

Hull Declares Allied Nations Striving To Secure Peace

Washington, Nov. 18 (AP)—Secretary of State Hull, the first cabinet member ever to address Congress, declared today before a joint session of both Houses that "we can and will remain masters of our own fate" through cooperation with other nations likewise intent upon security.

The decisions made at the Moscow conference, from which he returned a national hero, point the way, he said, to a world freed of "spheres of influence for alliances, for balance of power or any other of the special arrangements through which, in the unhappy past, the nations strove to safeguard their security or to promote their interests."

"Secure Peace"

"We of today," said the white-haired 72-year-old Hull, "shall be judged in the future by the manner in which we meet the unprecedented responsibilities that rest upon us—not alone in winning the war, but also in making certain that the opportunities of future peace and security shall not be lost."

"As an American, I am proud of the breadth and height of vision and statesmanship which have moved you, ladies and gentlemen, in each House of the Congress to adopt, by overwhelming non-partisan majorities, resolutions in favor of our country's participation with other sovereign nations in an effective system of international co-operation for the maintenance of peace and security."

He said the United Nations are on the offensive and that "our enemies are suffering defeat after defeat."

But victory, he added, will be hastened only as all the United Nations continue to press their advantage without the slightest relaxation or deviation.

Hull said he went to Moscow by direction of President Roosevelt to discuss basic international problems in the light of principles to which this country has come to give widespread adherence.

Mutual Respect

"It has never been my fortune to attend an international conference at which there was greater determination on the part of all the participants to move forward in a spirit of mutual understanding and confidence."

He said the Moscow conference "is believed to have been an important step in the direction both of shortening the war and of making provision for the future."

It is increasingly clear, he continued, that the time is nearing when more and more of the territory held by the enemy will be wrested from his grasp, "and when Germany and its remaining satellites will have to go the way of Fascist Italy."

The Secretary of State said the Moscow discussions were concerned with many of the new problems which would arise out of such developments.

Study Programs Of Recreation Centers

A discussion on the proposed establishment of a recreation center in Gettysburg was held at a meeting of the Gettysburg Recreation committee Wednesday evening at Hotel Gettysburg. No definite action was taken but programs used by other cities were studied.

Members of the committee in attendance included Henry T. Bream, chairman, Lions club; Dr. R. S. Saby, Rotary club; Mrs. Henrietta Blocher, Sororist club; Mrs. A. B. Plank, Women's club; Mrs. A. R. Wentz, YWCA; Mrs. Frederick Tilberg, public schools; Arthur E. Hutchison, Chamber of Commerce, and Dr. William Quillian, First District Council of Christian Education.

Driver Fined After Accident

Fred Williams, 18, Camp Hill R. 1, driver for a Harrisburg linen concern, was fined $10 and costs for driving a truck without an operator's license after he had wrecked a company truck two miles west of here along the Fairfield road about 8 o'clock this morning. The fine was imposed by Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore after the charge was filed by Private George Ackerson of the Gettysburg detail of the state police.

Williams and a companion escaped injury when their truck ran off the highway and struck a bank. Williams told Private Ackerson he was forced off the road as he drove west by a car traveling in the opposite direction.

Damage to the truck was estimated at about $300.

ARGUE COLLEGE CLAIM FOR TAX FREE PROPERTY

Gettysburg college's relation to the 55th College Training Detachment here, its financial arrangements with the civilian students and its housing facilities were brought before the county court this morning in a hearing on the suit brought by the college against the county, borough and school board to prevent the taxing authorities from levying a tax on the former Aughinbaugh property, Springs avenue.

The property was given to the college under provisions of the will of Mrs. Lillie Aughinbaugh in 1942. Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president of the college, was the principal witness this morning. He declared that the tuition charge of $350 a year for civilian students was about $100 less than the actual cost of their education. The U. S. Army is paying less than the cost to the civilian student per man stationed here, Dr. Hanson asserted.

Army Contract

The principal purpose of the college in entering into the contract to take care of the 55th College Training Detachment was "to serve our country," Dr. Hanson said. The college had offered its services in any manner in which the Army might see fit, the college president said. The Air Corps then "turned over to us the air cadets for instruction in mathematics, physics, geography, English, history, physical training and a number of other subjects," Dr. Hanson said.

The college provides the instruction, facilities, dormitories, equipment and other necessities for the air cadets and is reimbursed by the Army for certain of the expenditures, Dr. Hanson said. Civilian students are charged less than actual cost, and the cost to the Army per air cadet is slightly less, Dr. Hanson said. The deficit at the college has to be met from a number of sources other than the income from tuition and the endowment fund, Dr. Hanson asserted.

"During the last three years more than twice the income from the endowment fund has been expended in scholarships alone," he stated. Many of the scholarships were issued to Gettysburg and Adams county students, he said. The dormitory problem at the college has been serious the last ten years, Dr. Hanson said. Average enrollment is 650 and there are not adequate dormitory facilities for that number, he added.

Before the arrival of the air cadets here the male college students lived in fraternity houses and private homes as well as in the dormitories. Old Dorm is capable of handling 121 students and McKnight Hall, 49. The remainder of the male students were in the fraternities and from 40 to 50 in private homes, the witness said.

The women students were divided between Huber hall, with 66 students; Stevens hall, 49; Myrtle Terrace, 14; Dickson hall, 12; and Aughinbaugh hall, 16, Dr. Hanson said. The college can provide dormitory facilities for 145 girls and has 190 women students this year. A few of the students live in their parents' home here, or commute from nearby towns. Each year the college must turn down a substantial number of "fine young women" because of lack of dormitory facilities, he said.

"To Meet Critical Need"

With the coming of the air cadets, the male students were moved from Old Dorm and McKnight hall and the girls were moved from Huber hall to provide room for the cadets. The fraternities were taken over by a special committee and were used to provide rooms for the women students and some of the male students. In May, 1942, the Aughinbaugh property was accepted at a meeting of the board of trustees of the college, "as a dormitory to meet the critical need for dormitories for young ladies of the college."

The students are charged $90 to $100 per year for lodging, Dr. Hanson said. That sum he pointed out merely covers the expenses of the operation of the dormitories. If there were any profit from Aughinbaugh hall it would accrue to the college and be used to defray other college expenses, he pointed out. Income from the fraternities does not go to the college, but to a special alumni committee and any profit will go to the fraternities when they resume their activities, Dr. Hanson said.

Dean and Larkin Testify

The college president asserted he could reject any of the Air Corps students if necessary. While he explained that right is not contained in the contract with the Air Corps "I have no fear that we hold that right." The program for the Air Corps students was planned entirely by the college in cooperation with Captain John R. Coshey, commander.

Received Army rejects, $4.95. Martin's Shoe Store.

CORONER OPENS INQUEST FRIDAY IN FATAL CRASH

A formal coroner's inquest into the death early Monday morning of Pfc. Ralph Shatzler, 19, Laureldale, Pa., in an auto crash at the York Springs intersection, will be opened Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the court house by Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner.

Friday's testimony will be confined to the questioning of Shatzler's three soldier companions who may not be available at a later date when occupants of the other car are able to be questioned at another inquest session, the date of which has not been set.

The other soldiers, two of whom were hurt, were taken to the Carlisle Barracks from the Warner hospital a few hours after the accident.

Three occupants of the other machine, Harold Little, 16, Hanover; Francis Altland, 16, Abbottstown, and Leonard Zinn, 18, Hanover, remain in the Warner hospital. Little has been unconscious since the crash. Zinn admitted after the accident that he was the driver and two of his companions are said to have confirmed that statement.

Burnell Raubenstine, 17, Hanover, has been discharged from the hospital. He told Private George Ackerson, state policeman who investigated the accident, that he was asleep before the crash.

ASK XMAS MAIL FOR NOVEMBER

Another appeal to make November "Christmas Mailing Month" was issued today by Acting Postmaster Lawrence E. Oylar, who said that delivery of the annual flood of Christmas gifts and cards, on time, always a serious problem, "will be more than a problem this year—it will be an impossibility—unless Christmas mailings are made largely in November."

"Transportation facilities are burdened to the limit with war materials and personnel, and the postal service has sent more than 31,000 experienced employees into the Army and Navy," Mr. Oylar said. "The only solution to the Christmas problem is: Mail in November. Mark your parcels. Do not open until Christmas." That is the only way to avoid disappointment on Christmas Day not only for many civilians but also for the members of the armed forces who are still in this country.

"It is also the only way to avoid the possibility of a Christmas emergency in the transportation and postal services. If the public will cooperate by mailing their Christmas parcels during November, we can handle a small volume of light, last-minute mailings, such as cards, up to December 10—but we can do that and avoid an emergency only if November is really 'Christmas Mailing Month.'"

Mr. Oylar pointed out that the volume of regular mail now is far above any previous records.

YOUTHS STEAL CARS FOR WILD "EXCURSIONS"

Nocturnal excursions of a quartet of Gettysburg youths who traveled in "borrowed" cars, fueled by stolen gasoline coupons and financed at least partly by sale of auto accessories that did not belong to them, have been brought to a close during the last few days by Chief of Police Glenn Guise and Private Harold Trout of the state police.

The youths, ranging in age from 14 to 17 years and residing in or near Gettysburg, are being arraigned in juvenile court.

Chief Guise said today that the boys for some time have been removing cars at night from the storage room operated by Glenn C. Bream at the rear of the former Butt's restaurant on York street, and using them for trips of 200 to 300 miles a night.

Damage Property

Police have heard from many sources about the "high jinx" that have marked those nightly excursions but it was only last Saturday that Mr. Bream reported that someone apparently was taking his used cars out of storage at night and returning them before dawn with speedometers showing considerably higher readings.

Farmers have reported mailboxes knocked over or broken. Parked cars in Bonneville and elsewhere have mysteriously been overturned at night. Others have been given partial new coats of paint in assorted hues. Car windows have been smashed and accessories have disappeared.

Chief Guise said the youths used a pass key to enter the garage on their frequent visits.

Most of the nightly excursions were made in the direction of Hanover, the officer asserted.

COUNTY WOMAN DIES WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Mary Spangler, 66, York Springs, widow of Charles Spangler, died Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dale Keefer, Sharon, from a complication of diseases.

She was born in Adams county, a daughter of the late Alfred and Catherine (Stokes) Wilt. Mrs. Spangler was a member of the York Springs Lutheran church.

Surviving are two children, George, Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Keefer, Sharon; three sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Kauffman, Dillsburg; Mrs. Catherine Sponseller, New Oxford; and Mrs. Carrie Marie, Philadelphia; two brothers, Elmer Wilt, Selma, California, and O. E. Wilt, Illinois. A number of nephews and nieces also survive.

Funeral services from the York Springs Lutheran church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by the Rev. Ralph Meckley. Interment in Sunnyside cemetery, York Springs.

Friends may call at the Pittenurf funeral home, York Springs, Saturday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

U. S. Seaman, Wounded At Salerno, Visits 'Field

John W. Hanford, wounded merchant seaman from Scarsdale, New York, is interested in battlefields—both past and present.

The Scarsdale sailor, Wednesday, visited the Gettysburg battlefield and despite an injured foot walked about much of the field, visiting Bloody Angle, Culp's hill and other spots. He had always wanted to see Gettysburg, greatest battle of the Civil war. He was on leave from the merchant marine because of injuries received in a "Bloody Angle" in this war at Salerno, so he took the opportunity to visit the 'field here.

His ship put into the harbor at Salerno with a large number of other ships when General Mark W. Clark's armies stormed the beaches. Hanford says when anyone asks him "where is the Luftwaffe?" that his answer will always be that he doesn't know where the German air force may be, but a good facsimile of it was at Salerno.

Hit By Shrapnel

A German bomb went through the number four hatch on Hanford's ship. Hanford himself was thrown "what seemed like 35 feet" by the concussion, and a number of men were killed when the bomb exploded in the hatch. Few of the men killed were close to the bomb, Hanford says, most died when the steam pipes in the ship burst from the concussion of the bomb. A quantity of flour in the bottom of the hold prevented the bomb from blowing the bottom out of the ship, although the plates were strained and much water was shipped. Hanford, on the bridge at the time, suffered a number of

YOUTHS ADMIT STORE ROBBERY

Solution of the robbery of the Gettysburg Hardware store on the night of October 1 was completed Wednesday with the arrest of two youths, both of whom have admitted their part in the theft, Chief of Police Glenn Guise said today.

One youth has been charged before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore with burglary and has signed a plea of guilty. He is free under $500 bail for his appearance in sentence court. The other boy will be arraigned in juvenile court.

The arrests were made by Chief Guise and Private Harold Trout of the Gettysburg detail of state police.

The pair smashed a store window facing the alley along the north side of the building to gain entrance. Cash was removed from an unlocked safe in the store room, Chief Guise said. Calvin Shank, proprietor, said about $60 was taken.

ALLIES BLAST LUDWIGSHAFEN, NORWAY, BERLIN

London, Nov. 18 (AP)—American Liberator bombers ranged far over Norway again today, blasting at Hitler's far northern war industry only a few hours after a heavy RAF assault on the German chemical center of Ludwigshafen.

It was the second time in three days American bombers had blasted at the section of German war industry hitherto relatively free of aerial poundings.

A power station at Rjukan, about 80 miles west of Oslo, and a molybdenum mine at Knasen were blasted Tuesday.

Today's targets were not identified immediately.

Last night's RAF attack on the German Rhineland city was carried out along with a raid on Berlin, hit by Mosquitoes for the third time in seven days, and other attacks on unnamed targets in western Germany.

One Bomber Lost

One bomber was lost during the night's operations, as compared with 12 heavy craft lost by the RAF the last time Ludwigshafen was raided on October 4.

The world's largest chemical works, operated by the I. G. Farben trust, is situated at Ludwigshafen, where his explosives are made along with submarine parts, tanks, trucks and Diesel engines.

The assault was the first heavy attack on Germany since American Flying Fortresses blasted at Bremen in daylight Saturday.

Last night's secondary raid on Berlin was the 17th visit the RAF's twin-engined plywood bombers have paid the German capital since mid-August, but the first since November 3.

The big RAF bombers' last trip over Germany was the night of November 3, when a record weight of 2,000 (long tons) of explosives was dropped on the big industrial city of Dusseldorf, making it probably the world's most heavily bombed city outside of Hamburg.

Three high ranking British

Army officers visited the Gettysburg battlefield, the National Cemetery and the National Museum last Sunday.

When accosted by your reporter for their names, the nature of their visit and other data that we thought might be of interest to our readers, the ranking officer replied: "We'd much rather not divulge our names, you know. Not that we object, of course. We'd jolly well like to tell you everything but we'd rather you'd not mention our names at this time, if you don't mind. Sometime later we hope to come to Gettysburg again and then we'll give you a really good story, if it's all the same to you."

Battle Picture In Papers

Hanford told a reporter for The Gettysburg Times that he went ashore in the Sicilian invasion with one of the landing barges but—"you can get a better idea of a battle by reading about it."

His ship came close to the shore—carrying the barges that were to transport the soldiers to a part of a beach. The men went ashore and later Hanford took advantage of an offer to go along with one of the barges carrying supplies from ship to shore. His ship was being strafed by planes and was carrying demolition bombs. Deciding it was safer

BOCHE STIFFEN LINES AGAINST YANKS IN ITALY

By DON WHITEHEAD

With the Fifth Army in Italy, Nov. 18 (AP)—Determined to hold their Garigliano river line all winter if possible the Germans have concentrated the bulk of their defensive strength along the Fifth Army front in a desperate bid to halt the Allied advance on Rome.

This strategy became increasingly clear today as American and British patrols probed the enemy's so-called winter line—a deep series of pill-boxes, gun emplacements, trenches and barbed wire entanglements blasted out of the rocky mountains.

For the first time since Allied troops fought their way ashore on the beaches of Salerno the Germans have fallen back while they fortified six positions—and no one has any illusions about the bitter, bloody battles that must be fought before the enemy is dug out of the hills.

Natural Road To Rome

The valley running from Cassino to Rome between towering fog-covered mountain passes is the natural road for the army to follow.

And because it is the natural avenue to Rome the Germans have thrown up their heaviest defenses and massed the greater part of their troops in the vicinity, with Apennines on their left flank standing as a guard against the British Eighth Army.

In addition to holding the strong positions on heights commanding the valley the enemy has had a friendly ally in the weather. Steady cold rains have swollen streams and inundated bypasses along the Fifth Army's supply lines as well as subjecting troops to exposure in muddy slit trenches.

But for the first time in a week the skies were clear today and a bright sun shone on the muddy front giving the Doughboys and Tommies a chance to dry their clothing. Also for the first time in several days the air force had a chance to strike at the enemy.

The strain on the troops has been great and the rugged mountain fighting is underscoring once again the fact that war is a grim game for tough resilient youth.

Fly Flag Friday

In commemoration of the 80th anniversary of the dedication of the Gettysburg National Cemetery, November 19, 1863, it is suggested that Gettysburg merchants and residents fly the American flag on Friday.

This anniversary date is considered by many Gettysburgians as the most significant in the town's history.

The widespread interest in Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, more quoted than any other public utterance by any man in the world, has gained considerable renown for Gettysburg.

Ralph R. Gresh, pastor of St. James Lutheran church officiating.

Interment in Evergreen cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home this evening after seven o'clock. Mrs. Weaver was the third of four Gettysburg sisters to die within 17 days. Her sister, Mrs. Rebecca Jane Zeigler was buried Tuesday afternoon.

AEGEAN ISLES HAVE STRATEGIC MILITARY VALUE

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(Associated Press War Analyst)

Since the dawn of history men have engaged from time to time in bloody battle on the rocky shores of the little islands of the Aegean Sea, either to capture them or, having achieved that feat, to hold them against the enemy.

One would think that these eruptions on the face of the waters were endowed with priceless wealth instead of being mainly barren volcanic upheaval. Some of the biggest have had their merits and have been developed, but most of them have served merely as homes for fishermen.

Still the battle of the Aegean islands goes on. The Germans have stormed Leros in the Dodecanese group by air and by sea and have wrested it from the British and Italians after a fierce five-day struggle. Small Cos, twenty miles south of Leros, likewise fell to the Hitlerites about three weeks ago.

Why such an expenditure of men and materiel for a handful of rocky islands?

Key To Aegean

If you will glance at your maps of the Near East the story is there plain enough. Taken as a whole, these islands have great strategic importance in relation to the Near East, the Balkans and even to the greatest battle of all time which is being waged along the Russo-German front. They have yet another value, and that's psychological, for they lie close to Turkey and their possession by the Hitlerites is calculated to give the Turks grim warning not to challenge Germany's strength by giving aid to the Allies.

Note first on your maps the big Mediterranean island of Crete, which stretches like a watch-dog across the mouth of the Aegean. Then as you go north into the Aegean there are the Italian Dodecanese islands on the right and the Greek Cyclades on the left. Beyond these are still others, until the whole sea is fairly choked with them.

Answer On The Carpet

He who holds these islands controls the Aegean—a fact which is doubly important because this is the only water route to the Black Sea. And it's Hitler who now possesses all the important islands, including Crete, with the exception of Samos.

Naturally one of the first questions that arise is why the Allies, having got their foothold in the Italian Dodecanese when Italy collapsed, should now be thrown out by the Nazis. Well, that's a hot question which likely will irk the Allied high command. The loss presumably was due to lack of air coverage, the main Allied bases being far away, but whether this handicap of distance should have been overcome is a point which somebody undoubtedly will have to answer on the carpet. Certainly this exhibition of Nazi strength is a warning that Hitler still is very dangerous.

You'd think that the Fuehrer had trouble enough on his hands up in Russia without bothering with pin-head islands in the Aegean. But it's precisely because he is in such great difficulties up north that he's clinging so fiercely to the islands.

Ankara Will Think

Actually these islands are indirect protection for the gravely endangered German right flank up in the Dnieper region. This is so for two vital reasons: (1) the islands effectively block invasion of the Balkans via the Aegean, and Hitler dare not allow the Balkans to collapse until he has pulled his battle-line clear back into Poland, past the entrance to the Balkan peninsula; (2) the blocking of the Aegean and the Dardanelles prevents the Allies from giving Russia the vast aid which would be possible if the Black Sea were open to them.

Of course, even if the Aegean were clear of the enemy, the Allies still would have to get Turkey's permission before sending ships through the Dardanelles into the otherwise land-locked Black Sea. One of the things that Hitler fears most is that the Turks will grant the Allies air bases, and throw the Dardanelles open to them. He hopes that his recapture of such strongholds as Leros will make Ankara stop and think before lending aid to his enemy.

Of course, access to the Dardanelles would be of use only when the Germans had been cleared out of the Aegean. However, that job can be done when the Allies tackle it in force, the present setbacks notwithstanding.

Montgomery Noted For Punctuality

Abington, Pa., Nov. 18 (AP)—Captain E. I. Phillips, Jr., personal pilot for Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery, commander of the British Eighth Army for three months, says the general's watchword is punctuality.

"When Montgomery said he'd be over to inspect raid damage, the general was there, and at the exact moment he promised," says Captain Phillips, a graduate of Pennsylvania State college, who has returned home after 55 bombing missions.

Captain Phillips said he has applied for duty as a fighter pilot, because bombers sometimes cause the death of innocent civilians.

The 26-year-old WAC, who is only four feet 11 inches tall, is believed to be the first woman ever to receive the coveted decoration. She is credited with having saved the life of Pvt. Kenneth M. Jacobs, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Jacobs, York, formerly of East Berlin, and a grandson of Isaac Miller, late cashier of the East Berlin National bank. Jacobs fell into a pool of blazing gasoline, September 11.

The OPA said that these items have been under general price control but not under specific dollar-and-cents ceilings.

OPEN CONFAB ON RURAL LIFE

The relation of religion to life on the farm and the duty of the ministry in aiding the men returning from the war were discussed this morning at the opening session of the Rural Life conference being conducted by the state council of churches at the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological seminary.

More than 100 ministers and laymen, including a number of farmers, representing nearly every Protestant church, attended this morning's sessions and more were expected this afternoon. The Rev. Edward K. Ziegler, head of the Rural Church Work committee, and pastor of the York Church of the Prethren, spoke on agricultural missions. He is a former missionary to India where his work involved the church in rural areas.

Dr. Bertha Paulsen, of the Seminary faculty, spoke on what the ministry can do to assist the men returning from the war fronts. The Rev. Henry W. Sternat, Biglerville, presided. Dr. A. R. Wentz, president of the Seminary, extended greetings.

The conference began its afternoon sessions with Dr. C. E. Krumbholz, New York city, social welfare secretary of the National Lutheran Council, speaking at the student session and Prof. William V. Dennis, State College, addressing the ministers. Choral vespers at 5:10 o'clock will conclude the session.

Says Americas Can Avoid Depression

Pittsburgh, Nov. 18 (AP)—Mexican Ambassador Francisco Castillo Najera declared last night that nations of the Western Hemisphere must control prices and imports in order to prevent a brief postwar business boom followed by "a serious and perhaps long depression."

In an address before the Pittsburgh Regional Inter-American center at its formal organization meeting, Najera urged economic cooperation between the United States and Latin America "with the certainty that returns shall be larger than those obtainable elsewhere."

Latin American countries after the war would not seek "pecuniary relief," he said, but added some of them would require investment of capital for their development. He foresaw no cut-throat competition between the U. S. and Latin America but said their economies "will complement one another to our mutual advantage."

Hope To End U.S. Mine Operations

Washington, Nov. 18 (AP)—With coal mine wage negotiations off to a fresh start, Interior Department officials were hopeful today of an early agreement which would permit an end to government possession of the mines.

Operators representing about half the nation's soft coal tonnage accepted Secretary Ickes' invitation to undertake negotiations with the United Mine Workers yesterday. The notable absentee was the Southern Coal Operators association and the captive mines which are owned by the steel companies. Ickes' aides did not regard the absence of the Southern group necessarily as a turnaround and expressed hope that representatives eventually would join the conference.

Harry Moses, spokesman for the captives, said however he did not plan to participate. With Illinois and Indiana participating, the new conference erased the geographical lines of the Appalachian negotiating committee but Moses said he had not withdrawn from the Appalachian committee as such.

Martin's Telegram Arrives Week Late

Washington, Nov. 18 (AP)—One week enroute, a telegram from Governor Martin of Pennsylvania to Economic Stabilization Director Fred M. Vinson asking for a hearing on Pennsylvania's attempt to increase milk prices was received in Vinson's office Wednesday morning.

Paul Porter, assistant to Vinson, said the Governor's telegram was dated November 10, and added "I can't imagine what delayed it."

Porter said a reply will be sent to the Governor as soon as Vinson has an opportunity, but he doubted if a hearing could be arranged "for some time because Mr. Vinson is in the midst of the coal price situation."

Porter said Vinson had no comment on a letter to him from Senator Guffey (D-Pa.) asking him to deny Martin's request for a milk price increase in Pennsylvania.

ashore, he went with the soldiers.

Best View From Ship

"When you reach the beach you find the nearest place to lie on the ground. You can't see much that is happening. Everybody else is hiding too from the enemy who is shooting back from the shore. Occasionally you see a soldier crouching as he runs ahead a short distance to the next cover during the advance. You hear the rumble of shells and hear bullets about you—but that's about all," Hanford says.

When he got back to his ship he found the sailors had a better view of the battle than the men ashore because they could see farther inland.

While his ship has been attacked several times by planes, it has never been attacked by submarines. Hanford confesses to being afraid of submarines—"with airplanes you can get set and you have warning that they are coming. A submarine can sink you before you know what it is all about."

LIST LICENSES AT RACE TRACK

Nearly 5,000 motorists whose automobiles were seen at the Pimlico race track during the 30-day racing season which closed there Saturday will be asked by their local War Price and Rationing boards to explain how they obtained gasoline to drive there according to the Maryland office of the OPA.

The Adams county boards said today they have not as yet received any list of license numbers from the Maryland board but that it was expected a list would be sent to the county for investigation.

The Maryland Office of Price Administration said Wednesday a total of 4,995 license tags had been noted by OPA investigators during the combined race meeting of the four major Maryland tracks.

Check Out-of-State Cars

While it was permissible to drive to the races with A-ration gasoline, the OPA maintained a daily check on autos suspected of having been driven to Pimlico with fuel allotted for essential driving.

OPA officials said that 2,839 cars had been found at the track with out-of-state license plates, and their investigators noted the license numbers of all of them, since few motorists would be able to drive from out of the state to Baltimore on A-ration gas.

In addition, the numbers of 2,116 Maryland cars were noted and forwarded to local rationing boards. Some of these, the OPA officials said, bore out-of-Baltimore license tags, while others with Baltimore plates were seen at the track repeatedly.

ARGUE COLLEGE

mandant of the college training unit, Doctor Hanson said.

Doctor Hanson asked permission of Judge W. C. Sheely, following completion of questioning this morning, to "make a statement on the aims and purposes of the college." He was told it was not necessary because the court believed it had all the details necessary as a result of the hearing.

George R. Larkin, statistician for the alumni committee handling the use of fraternities as dormitories, explained in detail the set-up by which the eight fraternities involved are operated. One hundred and forty-four students are being cared for in the fraternities of which 99 are women. Dean W. E. Tilberg was called to the stand to outline the distribution of students in the various fraternity houses, dormitories and private homes.

Decision Delayed

Doctor Hanson explained while on the stand that while male students are allowed to live in private homes approved by the college, the college does not allow the women students to live in other than college-provided dormitories where they are under the supervision of a house mother provided by the institution.

The court at the conclusion of the hearing decided to await study of the transcript before passing an opinion on the case.

A question by Eugene V. Bulleit, Esq., attorney for the town and county, brought from Doctor Hanson the answer that "Aughinbaugh hall is the only dormitory so far which is more than a block or so from the college proper." The building is about six blocks from the college, but Doctor Hanson said that the students come "across the back way" along the railroad tracks to the school.

Richard A. Brown, Esq., represented the college.

BIGLER DROPS FINAL CONTEST BY 13-6 SCORE

Biglerville high school dropped its final football game of the season Wednesday evening on the Cannons' field to Washington Township high 13-6 before approximately 400 fans.

A forward pass followed by a lateral to Misner who scampered about 30 yards produced the winning touchdown for Washington Township in the final period.

The game opened with Washington Township kicking to the Cannons and Coach Smith's outfit promptly marched to the visitors' 25. Here the attack broke down and Washington Township took over and drove down field only to be stopped after working into Biglerville territory. Play was confined mostly to midfield the remainder of the period.

Visitors Score
A quick kick in the second period which sailed over the Biglerville safety man put the Smith-men back on their own 15. The Cannons were soon forced to kick and a little later Misner went around end and raced 35 yards for a score. Biglerville failed to threaten the opponents during the round.

A sustained drive down field after receiving the second half kickoff netted Biglerville its lone score, Pitzer pounding over from the eight-yard line. A line plunge for the extra point failed.

Early in the last period Misner got off on an 85-yard jaunt for what appeared to be a score but the play was called back when a visiting player was detected clipping. Two similar plays, a forward pass followed by a lateral, finally resulted in Misner's winning touchdown. A pass to Dowd was good for the extra point.

Play Well
Ogden and Pitzer played outstanding games on the offense for the upper countians while Misner and Bloom stole the honors for the visitors, the latter two time and again pulling down Biglerville ball carriers from the rear.
The defeat was the fifth in a row for Biglerville and its sixth loss as against two ties for the season.

WPIAL Grid Titles At Stake Saturday

Pittsburgh, Nov. 18 (AP)—Four WPIAL high school football teams will clash Saturday for two championships.

An even battle is expected when Pitsa and Aspinwall play for the "B" title. Each team has won all nine of its games this season. Aspinwall has not been scored on and Pitsa has yielded only three touchdowns to its foes.

Dormont and Glassport will play at Clairton for the class "A" championship.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Nov. 18 (AP)—Texas always does things in a big way, so it's no surprise to learn that the Lone Star state will present two championship games next week. Besides the Texas-Texas Aggies tilt for the southwest conference crown Thanksgiving Day, there'll be a "service title" clash between the Randolph Field Ramblers and the Southwestern Louisiana Institute trainees at San Antonio, November 27. . . . Ought to be quite a game, too, when Glenn Dobbs runs up against Alvin Dark. . . . Of course, the Arkansas Aggies may have something to say about that championship tag. . . . When the Marines took Angelo Bertelli from Notre Dame, they also took ten first-rate basketball players, but Coach Moose Krause still has a pair of 6-foot, 7-inch sophomore forwards and a lot of other good material.

PIGSKIN PICKINS

(Ohio State vs. Michigan)
The Junior Bucks
Have had lots of luck;
But they'll probably wish
They'd never played Mich.
(Harvard vs. Boston College)

plays for Boston.
(Texas Christian vs. Rice)
T.C.U. is no sensation
And will not Rice to this occasion.
(North Carolina vs. Duke)
Last week the Tar Heels toppled
Penn;
They won't do a thing like that again.

OBSERVATION POST

The Oklahoma football players, who upset Missouri recently after receiving farewell kisses from a bevy of beautiful coeds when they left for the game, now insist they won't play unless the girls repeat the act before each game. . . . That shows the difference between this year's football and the old fashioned variety—when the boys wouldn't play unless they received their pay envelopes first.

SCRAP COLLECTION

Verne Atkins, of Youngstown, Ohio, apparently is out to set some sort of a record in local boxing circles. He has been knocked out in his last four starts. . . . The Hockey Rangers are bidding $20,000 for an experienced defenseman in hopes of winning just one game. . . . Morton Bogue, who will become U. S. Golf association president in January, was coxswain of the crew for four years at Columbia. . . . Nolly Sams, dean of South Carolina sports writers, still can outdo the younger fellows at picking football winners. Last week he not only called North Carolina over Penn but picked Ohio State to beat Illinois "in a thriller." . . . The national horse show has been called off this winter. Apparently all the nags worth their oats are racing somewhere while the fans send a million bucks through the mutuel machines.

LEFT OUT

The Marines, always proud of being first, have come up with another "first" according to Sgt. Hy Hurwitz, former Boston sports writer. . . . One team in a new league in the South Pacific uses an infield of three southpaws and one right hander. . . . The wrong-side throwers are First Baseman Elmer Crue, a former three-eye leaguer, Second Baseman Shelby Farnsworth and Third Baseman Stanley Antelli. . . . The right-hander who was left is Pfc. Vernon Magers, who plays shortstop.

SERVICE DEPARTMENT

The only officer in the game when the Casablanca Yankees beat the Algiers Street Walkers in the North African world series last month was Lt. Walt Singer, former Syracuse and Giants footballer. He soaked a decisive home run in the second game. . . . Ensign Stanley Pitts, 1938 Kansas state grid captain and more recently line coach at South Dakota State, has completed his training for naval guard duty at New Orleans and is ready to ship out as C.O. of a Navy gun crew on a merchant ship. . . . That must make him a head coach now.

RADIO PROGRAMS

New York, Nov. 18 (AP)—If all the announced plans go through, Carol, exiled king of Rumania, is to be a part of the CBS Report to the Nation in its weekly broadcast next Tuesday night. These call for the broadcast to originate from Mexico City, where Carol now is living.

It will be the former king's first broadcast since his arrival on the American continent. He is expected to speak about five minutes in a plea on behalf of his cause and that of his native country.

The broadcast and arrangements therefore comprise another development since the recent announcement that a New York publicity firm had been employed to further the former king's standing in the eyes of the American people.

ALLIES RETAIN INITIATIVE IN WAR SAYS FDR

By S. G. BLACKMAN
 New York, Nov. 18 (AP)—President Roosevelt says the United Nations now hold "the supreme advantage of the initiative" in the war and must never lose it.

In a message to the New York Herald Tribune's 12th forum on current problems last night, the President recalled that a year ago he said the turning point of the war had been reached.

"The great advances that have been made during the year since then," he said, "can be measured by the fact that now the important events of the war—and the building for the peace—are being impelled by us of the United Nations and not by our enemies."

Speakers at the final session at the Waldorf Astoria hotel included Vice President Wallace and Wendell L. Willkie. Messages were read from Prime Minister Winston Churchill and Foreign Minister Anthony Eden of Great Britain and from General Charles de Gaulle, president of the French Committee of National Liberation.

Message Is Read
 The President, whose message was read by Mrs. Odgen Reid, vice president of the Herald Tribune and broadcast nationally, said that "in the years—and perhaps the centuries of peace—that are to follow this war, the forces of civilization and common decency, the overwhelming majority of the human race, must always maintain the initiative."

"In the historic conferences at Moscow, we have made several long steps forward. We are making substantial advances in another field, in the conferences now being held by the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration."

Wallace declared that "lack of planning and the selfishness of so-called hard-headed men can turn peace II into World War III."

"We must resolve," he said, "that we shall not again produce world-

600,000 Rather Work Than Retire

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 18 (AP)—More than 600,000 men and women over 65 are holding down jobs in the United States rather than retire on federal old age benefits, says John J. Corson, a Social Security board executive, and he declares these people "have answered effectively those critics who have said we would destroy initiative if we provided social security for our people."

Willkie Speaks
 Willkie praised the Moscow accord reached by the United States, Great Britain, Russia and China as "a sound foundation on which we can build" but urged that it be enlarged to permit all the United Nations to sign a declaration of intention.

"The significance of the Moscow meeting could be prevented from degenerating, as it might possibly do under certain circumstances," he said, "into a mere alliance of four powerful countries for the ruling of the world."

Churchill observed that the forum was held "in the glow of one of the most cheering developments in international affairs, the Moscow conference" where he said the four great powers had pledged "to work together not only in winning the war but in building the structure of a lasting peace."

Eden commented that the Moscow four power declaration "made it plain that there was and there would be no attempt to impose a sort of great power dictatorship on the other states."

GOD-FEARING EDUCATION
 State College, Pa., (AP)—Adoption by Pennsylvania high schools of "God-fearing" educational programs was proposed today as a means of curbing juvenile delinquency. Paul Kurts, acting assistant supervisor of Blair county schools, told a conference on secondary education "by God-fearing education, we mean a practical study of human values and standards that will appeal to modern youth, Christian and Jew alike."

"They have stuck to their jobs or else have left retirement to resume jobs," Corson, director of Old Age and Survivors Insurance bureau of the Social Security board, said yesterday at the opening of a four-day conference to plan social security operations in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York and Delaware.

Seventy-one managers of social security local offices in the area were present.

CAN VITAMINS CHANGE GRAY HAIR?

According to Good Housekeeping tests with Calcium Pantothenate on gray hair:

Age—did not seem to affect results. The earliest response occurred in a 50 year old; the latest in a 23 year old.

Color—began to appear near the roots of the hair. The color may not appear all over the head at the same time. Symmetrical areas, perhaps on the temples or the back of the head, may show traces of color first, after which the color will spread to other parts of the head.

Time—varied from 1 month to 6 months.

Results—88% of those tested had positive evidence of a return of some hair color.

Now thousands use GRAYVITA, which contains 10 mgm. of Calcium Pantothenate (the 484-Day Test). PLUS 450 U.S.P. units of B<sub>12</sub>. Try GRAYVITA. 30 day supply, $1.50, 100 days, $4.00.

Steel Workers Return To Jobs

Harrisburg, Nov. 18 (AP)—Decision of 150 workers at the Central Iron and Steel company to return to their jobs Wednesday enabled the defense plant to resume near-capacity operations.

George Medrick, District 11 director for the CIO's United Steel Workers union, and Henry E. Evans, company president, agreed the end of the three-day work stoppage stemmed from assurances of U. S. conciliation officials that the dispute would be certified to the War Labor Board.

The work stoppage made 750 men idle and severely crippled the plant's operations, Medrick said.

Both company and union officials called the work stoppage unauthorized. Medrick said the dispute resulted from "claims of wage inequality which the men claim have been in existence and called to the company's attention."

Ex-Governor Arthur H. James May Be Candidate For United States Senate

POLITICAL POT IS BOILING IN STATE CAPITAL

By WICK TEMPLE
Harrisburg, Nov. 18 (AP)—The state capital political pot boiled with speculation today as Republican leaders talked plans for the 1944 campaign in conjunction with the annual gathering of the party's feminine element.

GOP Chairman M. Harvey Taylor disclosed his candidacy for delegate-at-large to the party's Presidential convention, sharing attention with these other developments:

1. Friends of U. S. Senator James J. Davis voiced confidence he will seek re-election despite reports to the contrary. State Senate Leader Weldon B. Heyburn was understood to be listed among those seriously considered for organization support.

2. William I. Troutman, Congressman at large whose place was eliminated by the 1943 reapportionment law, was mentioned as the GOP candidate for state treasurer or auditor general—both positions are now held by Democrats.

Doubt Special Session
3. High administration sources doubted a special legislative session will be convened to simplify soldier voting or split federal and state ballots.

4. Republican women at their annual convention called for more feminine delegations to the national convention. National Committee-woman Mrs. Worthington Scranton said Governor Martin supports the move.

Taylor's candidacy had been expected. Governor Martin and Mrs. Scranton also are probable candidates for delegates at large. Martin and other party leaders seek an unopposed election.

In addition to Heyburn, former Governor Arthur H. James has been considered as a Senate candidate by organization leaders. Davis backed the state committee last year in a futile fight with Martin for the gubernatorial nomination. Reports that he might step out brought from a close associate the statement:

Split Ballots

"I firmly believe he will run. I believe this moment he is a candidate."

Discussing the possibility of a special legislative session, an administration authority declared "My honest opinion is there won't be one." He added "there has been some agitation and I don't think the governor has made up his mind."

Martin has insisted there is nothing to necessitate a session at this time. Legislative leaders think Congress will sufficiently simplify soldier voting laws to remove that issue. The governor himself frowned on a session to split the federal and state ballots so Democratic candidates would not benefit if President Roosevelt seeks a fourth term.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

Just a few lines to express my sincere thanks for the Service Men's Edition of The Times. I am still stationed here at Great Lakes where I am going to Torpedomen's school. I really did enjoy my leave after "boots," but I was glad to come back to the Navy, because it sure is a swell place for a guy to be.

In closing I again express my appreciation for your generous gift of The Gettysburg Times.

S 2-C HOWARD W. SHEPHERD, Sect. T 11-3, Bar. 502 up.

U. S. N. T. S., Great Lakes, Ill.

Dear Sir:

I wish to take this opportunity to thank you for sending me the Service Edition of The Gettysburg Times. I look forward to the day when The Times arrives here. It means a lot to the service men to receive news from home.

There is no one here from Gettysburg. At least, I haven't met any as yet. This is a very large camp.

This state is much different from good old Pennsylvania. I'll take Gettsburg, Pa., any old day, to this state.

I am about half-way through my basic training. I spend my spare time writing letters.

Thanking you again for sending me The Times, which I enjoy reading very much.

I remain,

Sincerely yours,
PVT. CHARLES V. ABELL,
Co. B, 4th Trn. Bn.,
1st Platoon,
Camp Wheeler, Ga.

Dear Sir:

Just a few lines to thank you for the many copies of the Times I have received since being over here. I really do enjoy reading them very much.

This letter leaves me well and happy as can be under the circumstances, and hope this will find all the readers of the Times well and enjoying all the abundance that life has to give.

I have now arrived in Italy and since being here have seen many horrors that war leaves and produces. The people are very friendly and differ from those we met before in the fact that they will exchange something with you for what they want and they like the American soldiers very much because they think he is a walking store. One is reminded very much of the states' because the weather is very much the same, but is ideal for this time of year. I will be closing now and will write more in the near future. Thanks again for the copies I have received and in closing may I say good luck and God bless all.

Yours sincerely,
PFC. JOHN H. MYERS
and
SGT. CHARLES TIMBERS.

Dear Sir:

I have been receiving the Times since being called to the service of our country, one year ago. I want to take time to thank you for it today. When I receive the weekly edition, even though it is a little late, I just sit right down to read it.

I'll send my new address H. S. Co. 1881 Eng. Avn. Bn., APO 929, San Francisco, California.

I am serving in the Southwest Pacific area. Wish I could say where. The weather is rather warm. But

Predicts 4 Years Of Pacific War

Pittsburgh, Nov. 18 (AP)—"The Japanese are firmly entrenched on hundreds of islands and they all must be exterminated before peace can come," declared J. Norman Lodge, Associated Press war correspondent, in an address yesterday.

"It will not be an easy road," Lodge continued. "We may have reversals and you'll probably see casualty lists that will be appalling." He predicted the Pacific war will last four years more and urged those on the home front to stop writing "gripping" letters to soldiers.

we are getting used to it—getting along O. K. I like it here, it's lots of new experiences. But I'll take the States—good old Pennsylvania.

Grand Jury Will Hear Murder Count

Georgetown, Del., Nov. 18 (AP)—Army Warrant Officer Carl Moultrie will face a grand jury December 1, four weeks after the state charges he fatally shot his fellow Warrant Officer John H. Worthington in a quarrel over Worthington's attractive wife, Elaine.

Chief Justice Daniel J. Layton, whose son and namesake investigated the shooting and filed a first degree murder charge against Moultrie, set the date for a special session of the Sussex county court yesterday.

If an indictment is returned, trial of Moultrie, who has been quoted by the younger Layton as saying he held the service pistol that killed Worthington, will begin the next day. James M. Tunnell, Jr., son of the U. S. senator from Delaware, will defend Moultrie.

Nazis Strip Jews, Steal Jewels, Then Shoot Them

Moscow, Nov. 18 (AP)—An eyewitness account of Jewish massacres in Kiev during the early days of its occupation by German troops has been given by Dmitrii Griov, a resident of Kiev, who said he saw hundreds of men and women stripped naked and then shot at the edge of a gulley into which their bodies dropped on a great pile.

In the account, distributed by Tass News Agency, Griov related: "Several days after the Germans entered Kiev I went to Lvovskaya street. An incessant procession of people was streaming through it and both sidewalks were lined with German patrols. This human stream kept flowing for three days and three nights without interruption.

Stripped And Shot
"The Germans were driving the Jews to Babyl Yar gulley beyond the city. I also stealthily made my way to that place. I was able to stand the sight of what I saw there only for ten minutes and after that everything went black before my eyes."

"The Germans forced people to undress and then methodically gathered their clothes and loaded them on trucks. In separate trucks they put underwear. Then they tore off from naked people—there were men and women among them—rings and watches if they had any, dragged them out shivering from cold or mortal terror at the edge of the gulley and shot them."

"The Germans did not spend any bullets on little children, but simply hurled them alive into the gulley."

All Were Killed

"Those who were awaiting their turn stood silently, or sang or even laughed. I could see that those who laughed were already insane."

"And this thing lasted three days."

"All those whom the Germans as yet did not drive to their death knew what was in store for them. Old men put on mourning clothes and gathered in their homes for prayer. Invalids were supported by others and some were even carried.

"All of them were killed."

EXILED RULERS TO HANDLE FOOD

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 18 (AP)—The existing exile governments of Europe got a new lease on life Wednesday from the evolving policy concerning the food that the United Nations relief and rehabilitation administration will move into war-stricken countries.

It has been about decided, a high source said, that title to the relief supplies will pass, at the port of entry, into the hands of whatever existing government controls the territory.

Thus, if the first food boat into the Netherlands, is followed shortly by a boat carrying Queen Wilhelmina and her cabinet, the distribution of the food will be turned over to them.

Only two countries are left in an uncertain position through the policy: France, because of the recent struggle between elements of her government in North Africa, and Yugoslavia, because of the present trouble between her forces on home soil.

TO GET HOLIDAY

Harrisburg, Nov. 18 (AP)—The State Capitol will be closed from 5 p. m. Wednesday, Nov. 24, until 8:30 a. m. Monday, Nov. 29, for the Thanksgiving holidays. Governor Martin's office announced Tuesday.

Wonderous Minerals!

BIO-MINERAL is a combination of vitally important, scientifically blended minerals. It contains more minerals than any other preparation of its kind on the market today—in fact it has no competitor, no substitute. It has most of those minerals we get in good rich foods, in mountain spring water, in fruits and salads and other mineral sources. Its purpose is to supply the recommended daily requirements of the essential body minerals.

MINERALS are very important to our health. Like vitamins, they are food essentials. They are part of our life, because our own body consists approximately of 17 different minerals: Iron, Calcium, Magnesium, Phosphorus, Copper, Oxygen, Carbon, Hydrogen, Nitrogen, Sulphur, Iodine, Chlorine, Sodium, Potassium, Silicon, Manganese and Fluorine.

Minerals—God's Gift

THE CURATIVE properties of minerals is not a new discovery. It has been known for many centuries. In Egypt, China, India and Rome people knew about Minerals. Mineral Springs became famous thousands of years ago. In ancient Greece, Thronia were very famous. There, according to legend, Hercules, the God of Strength and Youth drank and bathed to rejuvenate—to be forever young.

SECRET PACT REVEALED IN DIVORCE SUIT

Los Angeles, Nov. 12 (AP)—Terms of a property settlement between screen actress Rita Hayworth and her former husband, Edward Charles Judson, under which he received virtually all her listed community property in return for, among other things, agreeing not to accuse her of moral turpitude, have been disclosed in Superior court.

Provisions of the agreement were made known upon the unsealing yesterday of an attachment suit filed by Judson September 8, but subsequently dismissed.

The suit charged that Miss Hayworth promised to pay Judson $500 monthly until $12,000 was turned over, but that she had defaulted after paying only $2,000. Judson's lawyers said they dropped the action two weeks ago because "a substantial cash settlement had been reached."

Given Stock Shares

Under the previously secret property pact disclosed when the new attachment suit was filed, Judson, who was divorced May 22, 1942, promised to turn over to Miss Hayworth all documents bearing her signature and under his control; not sell or give away, circulate or publish any matter arising out of their marital relationship. Not to imply directly or indirectly that she had ever committed an offense of moral turpitude under Federal, state or local laws or that she had conducted herself in any manner which would cause her to be held in scorn.

Community property she turned over, as part of the agreement, included all their stock holdings, including 200 shares of Columbia Pictures common, 200 shares of 20th Century-Fox pictures, preferred, and 150 shares of Metal Assemblies corporation.

After her divorce Miss Hayworth was reported engaged to Actor Victor Mature, but she recently married Actor-Producer Orson Welles.

Washington, Nov. 12 (AP)—John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, met with coal operators Wednesday to negotiate for a wage agreement under which miners would work after the government returns the mines to their owners. A large group of operators sat down around a conference table at the Interior department with Lewis and a committee of NMW officials.

SEEK TO CUT STATE TAXES

Harrisburg, Nov. 12 (AP)—A legislative fact-finding committee is studying the possibility of recommending cuts in Pennsylvania taxes for the regular session of the General Assembly.

"We are undertaking a most comprehensive study of our tax structure," today declared Rep. Edwin Winner (R-Montgomery), chairman of the Joint State Government Commission's Sub-committee on taxes.

"Our ultimate goal is to make definite recommendations to the next session on revamping of the tax structure through simplification and possible reduction."

Huge Savings

House Speaker Ira T. Fiss, when the committee organized, said the group would "study what taxes should be permanent" and added it was agreed "there is no need for the emergency taxes."

Elimination of the emergency levies on liquor, cigarettes, gasoline, corporate net income, utility gross receipts and bank and trust company shares would save the taxpayers approximately $170,000,000 per biennium.

Winner said his committee would meet in two or three weeks and confer with representatives of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce, the state Economy League and other groups who have offered help.

PLAN TO SHIFT 600 PHYSICIANS

Washington, Nov. 12 (AP)—Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) indicated today he would make a last ditch stand if necessary to have Congress grant one million dollars to move 600 doctors into areas needing them critically.

The money would be used this way:

Three hundred physicians and dentists, appointed to the U. S. Public Health Service, would be sent into doctor-shortage communities and be paid regular health service salaries by the government.

The other three hundred would receive up to $500 to cover expenses of moving into the needy locations and then would be given $250 a month for three months to give them time to get established.

When the House and Senate appropriations committees last spring were considering the first appropriations bill for 1944, both turned down a proposal to include $175,000 to provide only 70 doctors for communities needing them.

Free Lance Miners May Appeal To D.C.

Harrisburg, Nov. 12 (AP)—Pennsylvania's independent anthracite miners said today they will appeal to federal agencies to permit free lance operations if the state insists on stopping their activities by November 30.

Clyde Machamer, president of the Independent Miners, Truckers and Breakermen's Association of Northumberland, Schuylkill and Columbia counties, said he had asked Governor Martin for a second conference and added:

"If that fails we are going to Washington to see whether they want our coal or not."

The governor's office said the miners had requested a conference but added no date had been set.

The anthracite committee, representing state officials, operators and union leaders, has ordered all independent digging halted by the end of the month.

AIRPORT DAMAGED

Berlin, N. J., Nov. 12 (AP)—Flames swept the old Pine Valley airport near here Monday night, destroying a hangar, a plane and an automobile and causing damage estimated by Fire Chief Frank E. Miller at $5,000. The cause was not determined.

SERVICE GROUP TO GET LIQUOR

Harrisburg, Nov. 12 (AP)—The Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board said today it expects to place into operation by Saturday a plan through which members of the armed forces in Pennsylvania can buy whiskey during the experimental rationing period which ends December 31.

The system calls for members of the armed forces to fill out forms which may be obtained at camps or posts, submit them to state stores and receive a pocket sized card in return which the commanding officer must sign.

By showing the card to clerks, soldiers, sailors or marines may buy a pint or a fifth of whiskey. They may not purchase the full allotment of a fifth and pint—as civilians may—at one time.

The board explained the rationing period will be apportioned into three equal periods. Members of the armed forces may divide their purchases between the periods by buying a pint each time or may buy a fifth in one period and a pint at another time.

In a statement, the board said that contrary to previously announced regulations, civilians must complete their purchases when they register. They may not register for possible permanent rationing and decline to make any purchase during the experimental rationing period.

SHOP EARLY!

MAIL EARLY!

REST EASY!

There never was a Christmas when Shop Early was more vitally necessary. We have been urging you to do it for years so that we could serve you better. But this year there are more reasons why you'd better check off your Christmas gift list in a hurry.

THE EARLY SHOPPER will find the best of what we have . . . not what's left of articles that can't be replaced.

THE EARLY SHOPPER will find our salespeople attentive and anxious to be of service . . . not harried and wearied by days after days of rush customers.

THE EARLY SHOPPER will find buses and trolleys less crowded. (Yes, we know they're crowded now . . . but think what they'll be nearer Christmas!)

THE EARLY SHOPPER will get gifts in the mail in time for Christmas delivery. Our war-burdened transportation system and short-of-help post offices simply cannot give the quick service of pre-war days.

Believe your Uncle Sam . . . ONLY those who shop early and mail early will rest easy, certain that there will be no disappointments among loved ones.

"Get in the Scrap" NOW!

YOUR JUNK ARMS THE NATION

SCRAP IRON & STEEL—Useless "junk" to you, but basic raw material for the hungry steel furnaces. Every ton of "scrap" takes the place of one ton of pig iron. And to make one ton of pig iron takes 2 tons of iron ore, 1.2 tons of coal, and 1/2-ton of limestone. Without scrap, we could not maintain our annual wartime capacity of 87,500,000 tons of steel.

WASTE PAPER & RAGS. The shortage of waste paper is now more critical than at any time since the war began! Vast quantities of old newspapers and magazines are being turned into weapons of war, and mountains of waste paper are required to make containers for carrying endless shipments of essential supplies overseas. Rags, too, are badly needed.

A discarded vacuum cleaner, your child's broken metal toys, obsolete office fixtures, a rusty plough . . . of such humble stuff is Victory made in total war. From these castoff accessories of peacetime living come the tanks, and guns, and bayonets that are pressing back the Axis aggressors on a score of world-wide battle fronts.

Today, America is no longer the pre-Pearl Harbor "land of plenty" to which we were accustomed. Vital imports from the Far East have been shut off by the marauding Jap. Nazi submarines lurk in the Atlantic sea lanes. And yesterday's "junk" is desperately needed to avoid crippling shortages on the production front.

The big job—your job—is to collect every usable piece of waste and scrap so that your local committee may speed this precious "raw material" from your community to the thinning stockpiles of our vital war plants the country over.

ROYALTIES ARE PROPOSED FOR MINE OWNERS

Harrisburg, Nov. 18 (AP)—A group of independent hard coal miners Wednesday proposed offering royalties to landowners for anthracite dug on their land as a compromise to the November 30 deadline set on all free lance operations.

The decision to offer royalties was reached at a meeting of a dozen members of the Independent Miners, Truckers and Breakermen's association of Schuylkill, Northumberland and Columbia counties following a conference Tuesday with the anthracite committee.

The November 30 deadline was fixed by the anthracite committee, a group of state officials, operators and union leaders.

"If the producers turn us down and will not accept royalties," declared Clyde Machamer, head of the tri-county association, "we are going to ask Governor Martin for another conference."

Machamer claimed the governor gave his association assurance, at a recent conference, that if some royalty plan could be agreed upon the free lance miners could continue operations.

Some Mining Permitted
He charged the November 30 ban was "an attempt to eliminate the independent miners from competition."

Richard Maize, Secretary of Mines and chairman of the anthracite committee, said after conferences with two groups of independent miners that the November 30 order banning all bootleg operations "stands for men working on coal lands without the consent of the owner of the property."

He said the committee told the two groups that "where a man has a lease to his property and obeys the mining laws of Pennsylvania he has the right to operate but if an owner does not want him on his land he will have to move off."

3 Miners Killed In 840-Foot Fall

Locustdale, Pa., Nov. 17 (AP)—Three mine workers fell 840 feet to their deaths down a mine slope and two others were injured Monday night in a freak accident in the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company's Potts colliery near here.

The company said all five were jolted from a gondola car ascending the slope when the car fouled its own slope rope. The two injured grabbed timbers to avoid falling.

Dead are Carl Blank, 33, and Frank Eltrintham, 53, both of Ashland, and Andrew Sincavage, 55, of Mt. Carmel. The injured, in Pottsville hospital, are Carl Smith, 28, Ashland, and Walter Laszowsky, 35, Pottsville. Their condition is reported not serious.

FINAL ASSEMBLY

By E. H. LEFTWICH

Chapter 7
The time passed slowly. Pete rubbed and polished tubing first with one hand and then the other, until both arms ached. From time to time he would stop and stretch before going on with his monotonous task.

Occasionally, Barker came around and passed a friendly word and once Tim Brandon walked by and stopped long enough to ask how he was getting along.

"Say, Alf," Pete asked suddenly, "you say we're out of screws for this ship? Do you mean to tell me that they can't buy screws?"

"Well, no," Alf answered. "Some parts are slow coming in, but screws can still be had. Somebody in the purchasing department fell down on the job and didn't order enough. You see, they didn't figure on any screws being lost or ruined."

"Do you mean to tell me they ordered just enough screws for the ships to be built on the contract?" "Yep, that's what they did. Figure it down to the exact number. Some of Mr. Kahl's efficiency methods."

"How long have you been out of screws?"

Alf pondered for a moment. "Off-hand, I'd say about six weeks." "Then, for six weeks the company has been paying a bunch of men to do nothing but 'chase the dog'?"

"Yep." "How many screws could have been bought for the money they paid the men to chase the dog for six weeks?"

Alf scratched his head with his idle hand. This new guy was apparently okay, but he asked too many questions. "You got me, buddy," he said, "how many screws could they have bought?"

"How many men are there in the rigging department?" "About sixty, I'd say, on two shifts."

"Then figuring sixty men's pay, at an average of say sixty cents per hour for six weeks . . ."

Pete reached down and picked up an old Personnel Pass from the floor. He did some quick figuring on the back of it with his pencil. "Total, over $8,000 in pay for these men. If screws cost a dollar a gross, which they don't, they could have bought 8,000 gross of screws!"

"Whew!" The old man exploded. "That's a lot of screws." "You bet, it's a lot of screws. And if they had ruined or lost half that many screws, they'd still have made money, by putting these men on jobs where they'd have earned their pay, and incidentally turned out more airplanes. Dog-chasing! Disgust was in Pete's tone. "Have you always had dog-chasing?"

"Well, yes . . . more or less, from time to time, when we run out of certain parts. If it ain't nuts, it's washers; and if it ain't washers, it's spacers, and if . . . say! You ain't one of them saboteurs, or a fifth column guy, are you? You ask so many questions . . ."

Pete laughed and started rubbing a different length of tubing which curved gracefully around the generator and terminated in the top of an aluminum electrical box. "Of course not, Alf. I'm just as good an American as you are. That's why I don't like the idea of wasting time while we're having a war. It's because these ships are so very important. It's just not right, that's all. There's no excuse for running out of screws or nuts or washers."

A relieved look flooded Alf's face. "For a minute," he confessed, "I thought you were one of them saboteurs. We got to look out for 'em all the time. Every once in a while, the FBI snatches one out of here. Now, that Charles Brackmyde feller, for instance: I can't see why he's stayed here as long as he has. He's a dirty saboteur, if I ever seen one . . . always snooping around where he ain't got no right to be and watching a feller work."

"Who's Charles Brackmyde?" "Oh, he's a buzzard who's supposed to work here in Final, only he don't do no more work than he can get out of. Never seen him hit an honest lick of work, yet."

"But, Alf, you mustn't get so down on people. Brackmyde is probably all right. You see, you almost believed that I wasn't."

"That's different. You're okay. You look a feller right in the eye, but Brackmyde, he can't do that. You watch what I say; they'll snatch him out of here any day now, and besides, he's been running around with Kitty . . ."

"Kitty. You mean the pretty girl?" "You're darn right I mean the pretty girl, and the finest girl who ever slapped an insignia on an outer panel. I guess you know who Kitty is."

"Well, yes. I've met her." "I saw her going toward the doctor's office last night. Got hurt again, I guess. She's always getting hurt, but she's the sweetest little queen who ever lived. Why did you know that the Cost and Accounting Department has figured that it costs the Company $63.80 every time she goes to the water fountain for a drink?"

"No!" "Yep. In time lost, tools dropped and stuff ruined and scratched by the men. You see, all their heads turn to watch her when she goes by. They been giving us hell about it . . . but we can't help it. She's so pretty. They'd fire her in a minute if they didn't know that all the men would walk out if they did."

"She must be some girl." "She is, buddy . . . and as nice as they come. There ain't nothing she wouldn't do to help a guy out and it don't make no difference who he is, either. That's why it burns us up to see Brackmyde chasing after her . . ."

"After all," Pete mused, "she has the right to choose her own friends." "But that guy ain't no friend to nobody . . . he's poison!"

At that moment there was a sudden stoppage of activity in and around the section where Pete was working. Men stirred restlessly and there was a general turning of heads in the direction of the Paint Shop. Pete looked and saw the trim figure of a girl in blue slacks hurrying out of the doorway. She was holding the wrist of her left hand in her right hand.

"It's Kitty," the old man cried. "She's hurt herself again. She's going to First Aid."

Pete dropped his piece of steel wool, shoved the old man aside with a quick motion and hurried toward her.

Union Breaking Is Charge At Brewster

Johnsville, Pa., Nov. 18 (AP)—Thomas De Lorenzo, president of Local 366, United Automobile Workers, charged Tuesday night that the House Naval Affairs committee, which is investigating affairs at the Brewster Aeronautical corporation plants, is "actually trying to break up our union."

De Lorenzo addressed some 400 of the 6,000 employees of the Johnsville plant at a meeting in nearby Jamison. He said the House committee is checking the draft classification of all union officers and stewards.

"That would be an easy way to break Local 366—but all of us in the Army," he said.

Explaining why he changed his name from Harry Posner to Thomas De Lorenzo, he said he was in the wine business with partners of Italian descent and took the new name for business reasons.

FIRST LADY OF PENNSYLVANIA IS VERSATILE

Harrisburg, Nov. 18 (AP)—Pennsylvania's diminutive First Lady is a versatile and very capable entertainer—both as an actress and as a hostess.

As a hostess, she shook hands and served tea yesterday to 1,000 Republican women delegates, and several hours earlier, she was just as appealing as she leaned on a broom during her role in a "Home Front Soldiers" pageant. At tea time in the executive mansion, she wore a lace-trimmed gray chiffon gown, but for the skit she donned a blue "wine" housedress.

There's no fuss and feathers about attractive Mrs. Edward Martin. Friendly and unassuming she's as much "one of the girls" at this year's Republican Women's Council meeting as she's been at every other one. Living in the brownstone mansion along the Susquehanna river front hasn't changed her one bit, convention-trotters testify.

Is "Home Folks"

For Mrs. Martin is "home folks"—"the kind you'd like to drop in on for a piece of pie and a cup of coffee," as capitol correspondents describe her.

Long years of training as an Army wife have enabled Mrs. Martin to take things like entertaining a thousand women in her competent stride. And the women, milling about in the brightly-lighted drawing room with its gold-medallion figured wallpaper and gold damask draperies (the latter a Martin addition), were aware of their hostess' friendliness and sincere approach.

And if her guests were a trifle disappointed at not being able to see the famous Pitcher collection, they laughed with Mrs. Martin at her reason for being unable to take them to the upstairs room where it is housed. The executive mansion, of pre-Civil War construction, is feared too weak to support the combined weight of a thousand guests!

MOTHER FATALLY BURNED

Philadelphia, Nov. 18 (AP)—Mrs. Rose Gannon, 25, wife of a sailor and mother of three small children, was burned critically Wednesday as she dozed off in a chair while smoking a cigaret, after returning from work on a night shift in a war plant. She was taken to a hospital after running several blocks to the home of relatives.

Regarding LYON'S Quality COFFEES

The supply of Lyon's Coffees are plentiful. Cafe Supreme being normally packed in glass jars to protect its flavor and freshness; large stocks are kept on hand to facilitate prompt delivery to your store through your wholesale grocer serving you. Because of the uncertainty in the delivery of glass jars, you may at times receive Cafe Supreme in the economy, "flavor-sealed" bag which affords equal protection in flavor and freshness as do the glass jars.

However our Golden Roast and Breakfast Blends must be ground to the order of your wholesale grocer. For this reason we keep only a minimum stock of these blends on our floor to meet day to day needs. It is our policy to have coffee delivered to your store at the peak of flavor and freshness. Because of increased sales of Lyon's Coffees, there may be times when you do not receive sufficient deliveries of Golden Roast and Breakfast Blend from your wholesaler.

Be assured, however, that we have plenty of coffee in all three blends to meet the ever-growing demand for Lyon's Quality Coffees. Your cooperation and patience will enable the wholesale grocer serving you to supply your customers with fresher and better coffees.
